RELEASE NO. 03-009

NASA LANGLEY TO HOLD BRIEFING ON FY 2004 BUDGET

A briefing on NASA's fiscal year 2004 budget request will be held Monday, Feb. 3, at 3 p.m. at Langley Research Center, Hampton.

The briefing will have two parts:

1. 3 p.m.: NASA Administrator Sean O'Keefe will preview the agency's fiscal year 2004 budget proposal. The briefing will be carried live on NASA TV with two-way question-and-answer capability for reporters covering the event from NASA field centers.
2. Immediately following: Langley Research Center Acting Director Delma C. Freeman will discuss the Langley portion of the NASA budget and its impact locally. Mr. Freeman will also take questions from Hampton Roads reporters.

The briefings will be held in the NASA Langley newsroom in Building 1202 on North Dryden Street. Reporters will be met at the gate by a representative of the Office of Public Affairs.

To participate in the news conference, call Margarette Pitts at 864-6124 to arrange for credentials and an escort to the newsroom.

NASA TV is broadcast on GE-2, transponder 9C, C-Band, located at 85 degrees West longitude. The frequency is 3880.0MHz. Polarization is vertical and audio is monaural at 6.8 MHz.
